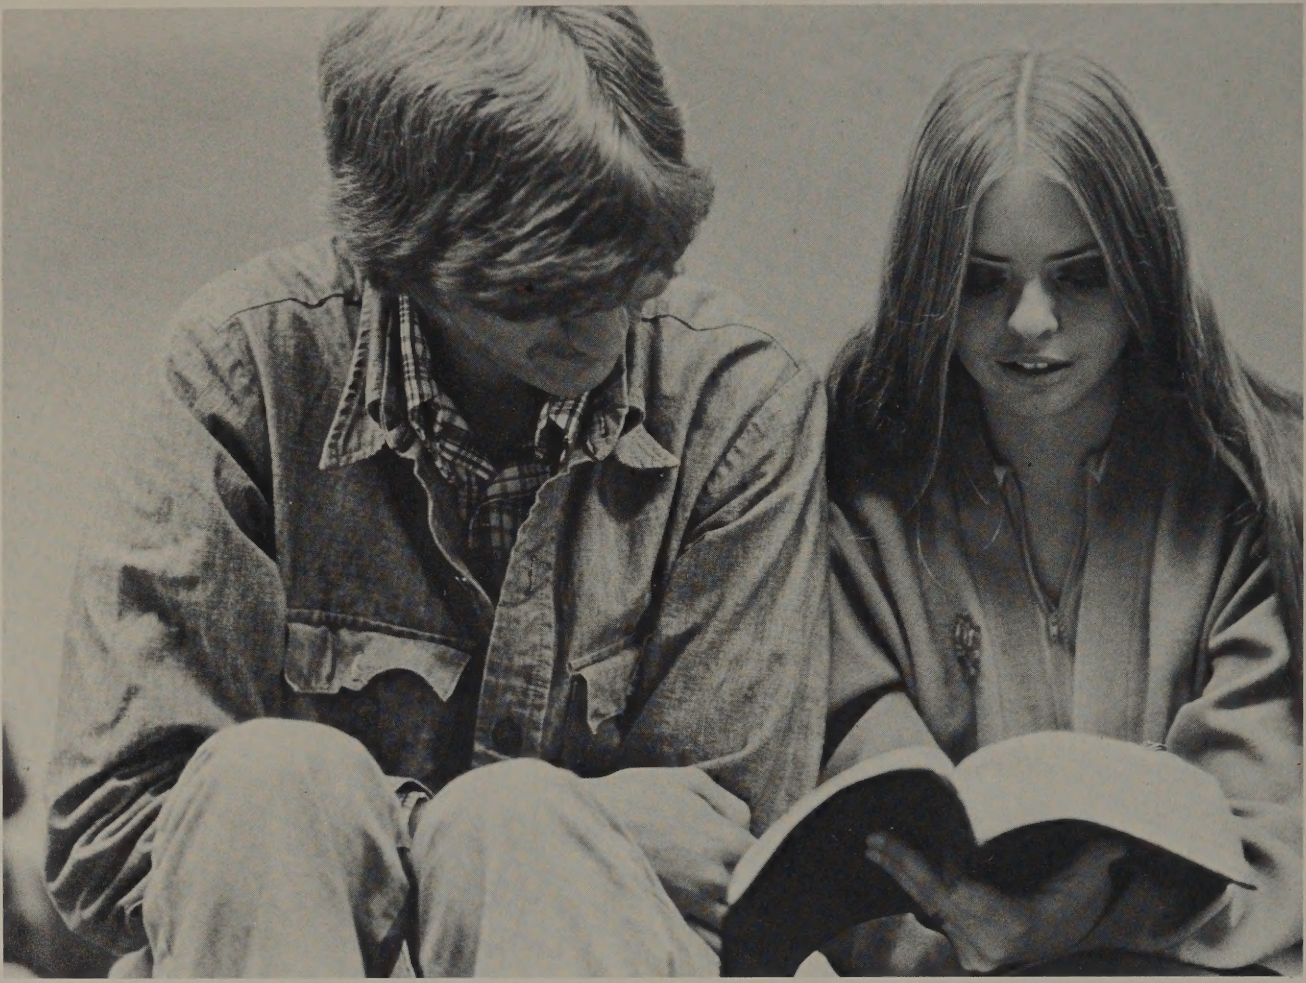
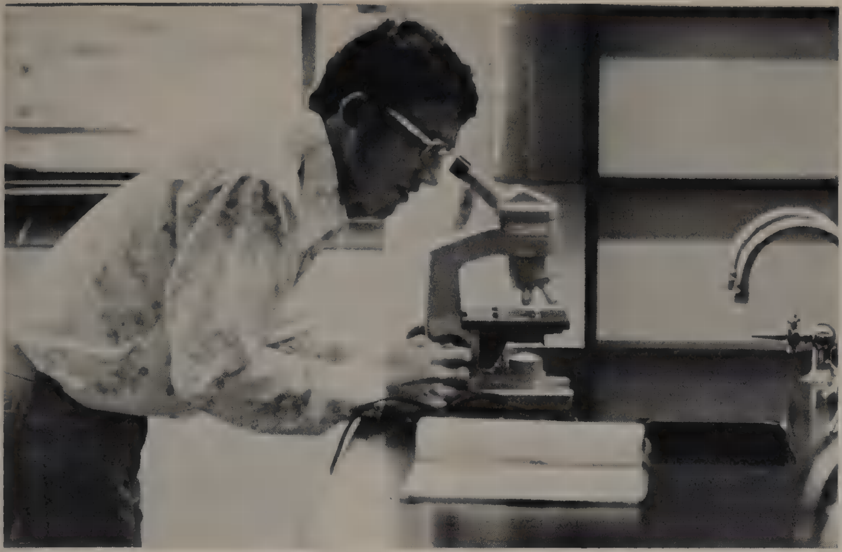
FOA

Time plays an important part in every person's life. To hold on to this very valuable asset we represent it with many symbols. Each has its own special meaning for every moment in our lives.



Many moments of many people were spent this year in fulfilling their lives. A wide variety of extracurricular activities and electives were offered to help young people find true meaning in their lives.

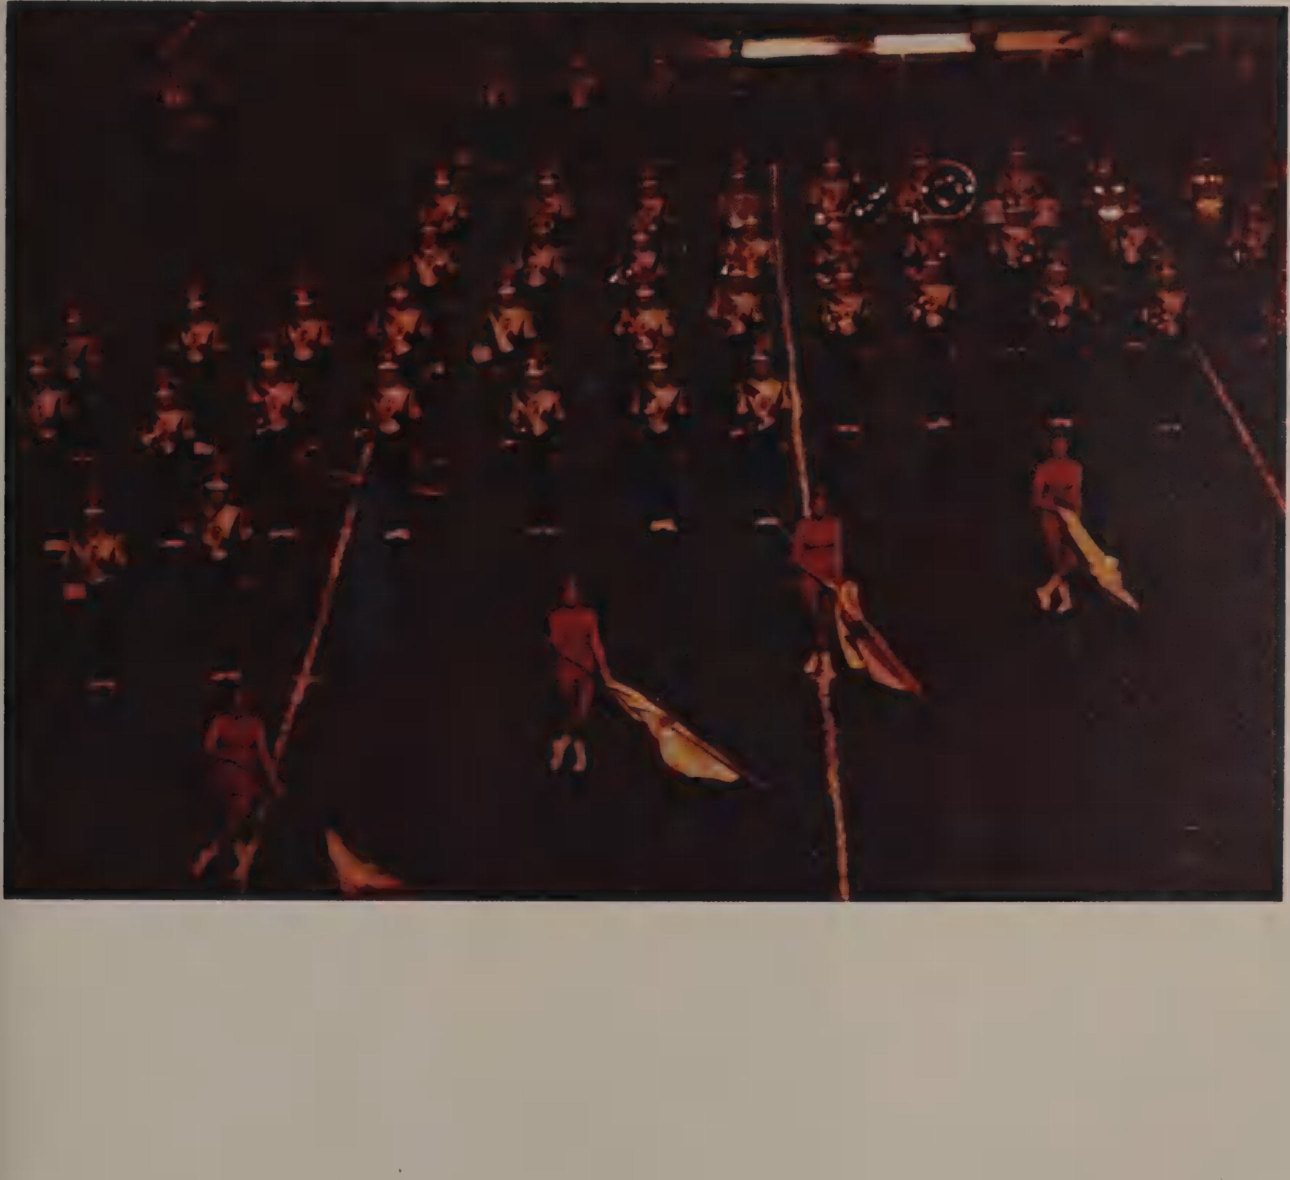
J.J. PEARCE
HIGH SCHOOL

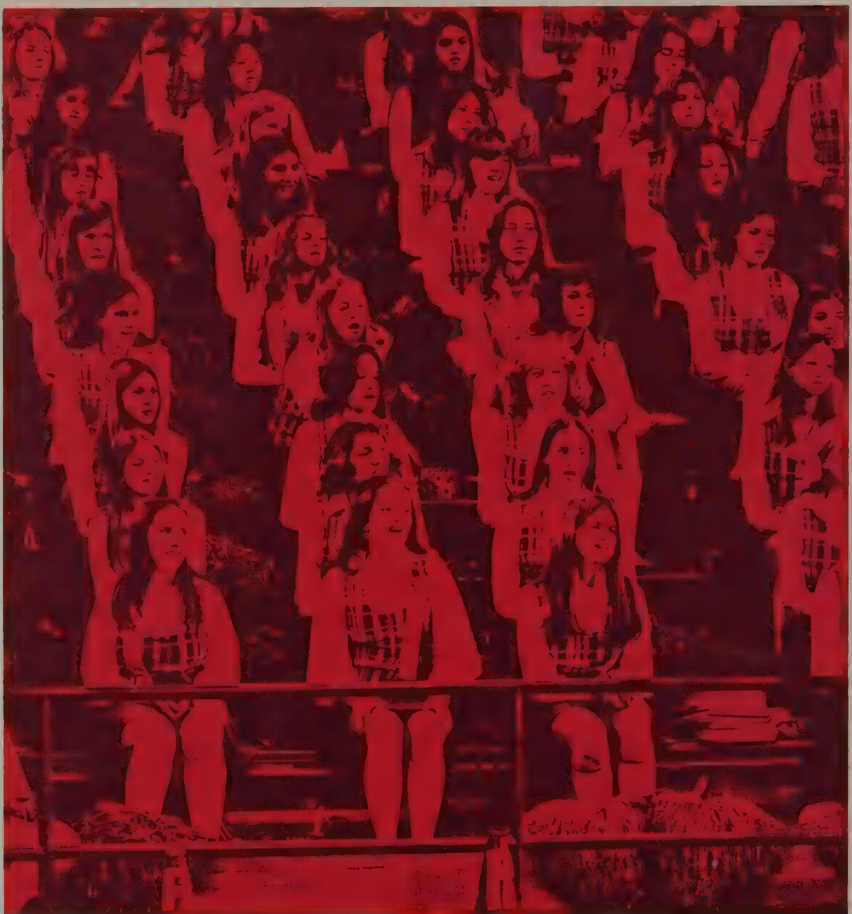


As we advance in life, we acquire a keener sense of the value of time. Nothing else, indeed, seems of any consequence; and we become misers in this respect.

Even a break from class activities takes up moments and time in our life. Often we look back on these moments and wonder about the wasted time. It should not be thought of as wasted time, however, but a time that was enjoyed by all.

Much time and effort was used for many activities, but the end result always included a sense of accomplishment, enjoyment, and things not forgotten in the joy of a single moment.





Everything that man values endures a moment or a day. In whatever man does, he must always remember this, because if he forgets, so will he forget those moments and days.

Hold fast the time! Guard it, watch over it, every hour, every minute! Unreguarded, it slips away. Hold every moment sacred; give each clarity and meaning, each the weight of your awareness, each its true and due fulfillment.

Mustang Annual

The J.J. Pearce Annual Staff, despite the many deadlines, manages to survive from year to year. Nothing short of sudden death is an excuse to miss a deadline and most of the members found that they had never been so near it before. This year has been one to remember, nevertheless the Annual Staff is still alive and kicking.

National Merit Semi-finalists

Wendy Chase was involved in many activities her senior year at Pearce. She was a Pacesetter lieutenant, president of the French Club, involved in National Honor Society, intramurals, and the Senior Play.

Susan Frank, a National Merit finalist, maintained a 98 average throughout her senior year. While being active in National Honor Society, Student Council, Young Life, and German Club, Susan achieved such honors as a Scholastic sweater, Who's Who Among American High School Students and was voted Most Likely to Succeed.

Mary Jo Lemming was chosen Who's Who because of her many honors and achievements, especially in Junior Achievement. Mary Jo was in Pacesetters, Student Council, Young Life and National Honor Society. She was also the recipient of a $250 scholarship to the Caruth Institute of Business.

Kathy Martin was a Pacesetter lieutenant, Young Republican and treasurer of the Math Club. She was also involved in National Honor Society and the Senior Play. Kathy received such honors as a Scholastic Sweater and superior ratings in the Natinal Piano Guild.

Keith Mullen was very active in his senior year. He played basketball and football, was in band, track, Fellowship of Christian Athletes, German Club and Senior Play. He was also President of Mu Alpha Theta and involved in National Honor Society.

Leslie Nay participated in many activities having to do with choir. Along with her beautiful voice, Leslie was also in orchestra and band, the girls sextet, Madrigal and Flag Corps. Leslie was interested in Maranatha, tutoring and had a part in the Senior Play.

Paul Woodbury played Basketball, Varsity and Intramurals, his Senior year. He was in the Boys' Choir and Madrigal, Student Council and Orchestra. In his spare time, Paul was very active as an Eagle Scout and won the Physical Fitness Achievement Award.

Scott Youzva was not only involved with senior class council and Fellowship of Christian Athletes, but was also a captain of the football team and the Senior Representative in the March of Dimes Marathon Dance. Scott helped tutor in East Dallas and helped with parties for the Buckner Children's Home.

Administration

The Richardson Independent School District, headed by Dr. J. J. Pearce, has served patrons and students well again this year. Their principal duties include making changes in the curriculum, establishing policies for all personnel, and trying to determine each school's needs and planning to meet these needs.

The School Board consists of seven concerned citizens who meet once a month to decide on current policies.

A. The School Board members are Front Row Mrs. Paul Seegers, Leo Eveleth, John Stalings. Back Row Charles A. Richardson, Charles West, Martin Vernon, Dr. Pearce, Jerry P. Owens.

Teachers

Using tolerance and tranquilizers, the teachers coped with problems of many students. Their patience was a mandatory virtue. Having faith in young people, the teachers often found themselves defending youth among members of the adult society.

Finally, farewell.
Mend your ways, be of good comfort, be of one mind, agree with one another, live in peace,
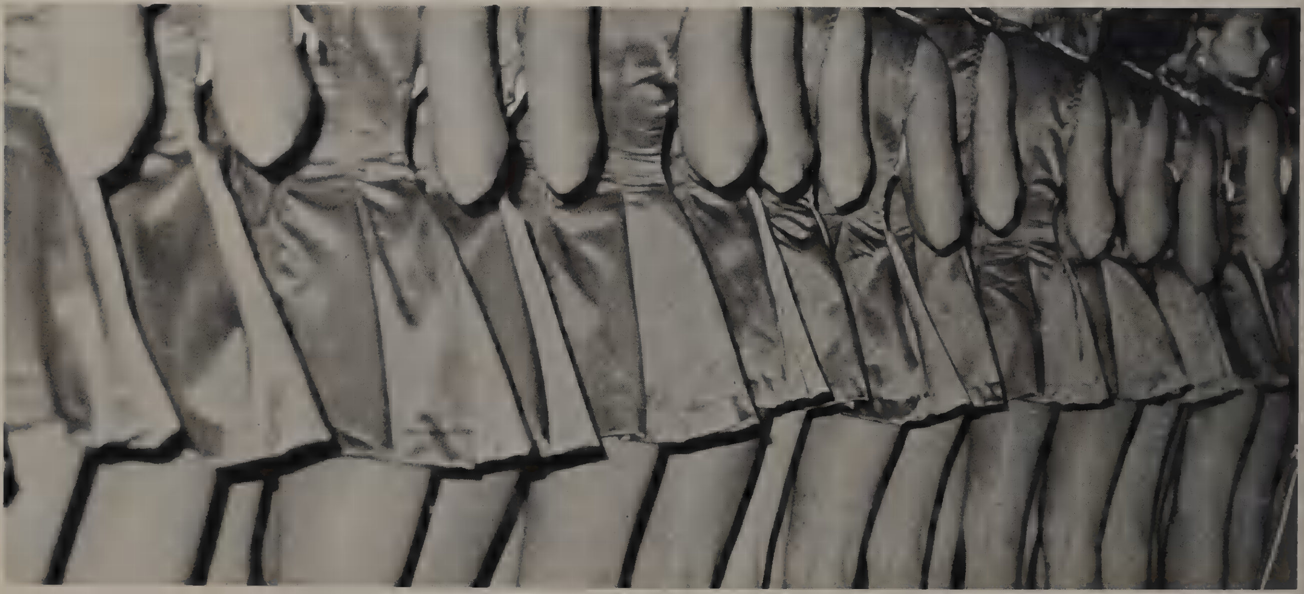
and the God of love and peace
shall be with you.
II Cor. 13:11



Time it was
And what a time it was.
It was
A time of innocence,
A time of confidence . . .

Mike,
I've enjoyed having you in class. Good luck in the future.
Coach

Only a moment; a moment of strength, of romance, of glamour — of youth! . . . A flick of sunshine upon a strange shore, the time to remember, the time for a sigh, and — goodbye!

To a great guy who I think is pretty cool. By the way I think we been had about that bike a thon. Good luck in years to come.

Mike,
I know you Jewish, but I'll still be your Jewish friend. Your going to have to put your backboard up high so I don't hit my head on the rim. Mike

Mike, I learn.
